

DIBOLL
DAY 2010
THEN... BACK AGAIN

September 01, 2010

Dear Vendors:

Plans are underway for our bi-annual DIBOLL DAY to be held Saturday, October 2, 2010 in scenic Old Orchard Park. We are expecting several thousand people to be present to enjoy the parade, music, entertainment and special events.

The theme for this year's event is Then...Back Again. We expect the crafts/marketplace area to once again be a popular part of our Diboll Day celebration. Our area will be a "Bazaar" and we will allow both hand-made and commercial items. However, we will not accept certain items to be sold from the Bazaar area. Excluded items include: garage sale or used items, food items, political information, vulgar and obscene products. (Items must be listed and approved on entry form)

Booths are expected to be open for business from 10:00 a.m. to around 4 p.m. Fees are $25 for a single space and $40 for a double space. (Spaces are approximately 10' x 12') This is a NON-REFUNDABLE donation to the Diboll Booster Club (no rain date). The event is held outdoors, and no covers, awnings, tables or equipment of any kind are furnished. A letter giving booth number, park passes and set up time/info will be sent about a week prior to the event.

Each vendor should furnish your own covered tables and equipment. Please remember there will be no garage sale items. This is for new handcrafted items and new commercially made items. Also remember we do not have electricity in our area of the park.

Please complete a vendor registration form and return with your check. Please remit as soon as possible so that you will be assured of a space. If you have questions, you may reach me at 936-829-3543, or you may call the Lottie and Arthur Temple Civic Center and speak to Sara Thompson at 936-829-4888.

Final deadline for entries will be September 20, 2010.

Hope to see you again this year.

Sincerely,

Patsy Colbert
